COMPETITION RULES & CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

- Members of the Queensland Clarinet & Saxophone Society are eligible for one free competition entry
- All section winners are invited to play in a Prize Winners Concert.
- Time limits should be strictly adhered to. Any performer exceeding the time limit may be disqualified
- Entrants may play more than one piece per section, however the time taken to move between pieces will be counted in the total
- Only one entry per solo section per performer allowed, however performers are welcome to enter multiple sections. Entrants may perform in more than one ensemble in a section.
- The adjudicators' decision is final
- No competitor, parent, guardian or teacher may communicate with the adjudicators during the section
- Contestants will receive a written adjudication at the end of each section.
- Contestants are required to supply copies of music to the adjudicators at the time of registration on the day. Photocopied material will not be returned. Performers should be using original music to perform
- The committee reserves the right to interpret the application of any rules
- Duets must include at least one clarinet or saxophone player.
- Ensembles should consist of three or more players with at least one clarinet or saxophone player. Wind quintets and jazz ensembles are welcome. Ensembles requiring drum kit or amplified instruments are acceptable but the entrant must write it on the entry form
- An official accompanist is provided on the day of the competition, at a cost of $10.00 per section. Please indicate on the official entry form if you require the official accompanist. Should you wish to rehearse with the accompanist prior to the competition, please email the accompanist. Details of the accompanist will be supplied by Friday 25 August 2017. Prior rehearsals are at the competitor's own expense and need to be arranged with the official accompanist.
- CD backings are acceptable. Please write it on the entry form under accompanist.
- Entrants may provide their own accompanist at their own expense.
- A refund of entrant fees will only be given if cancellation occurs by Wednesday 16 August.
