Bring lunch and a music stand

The Queensland Saxophone and Clarinet Society are proud to present Dr. Jay Byrnes, a leading Australian educator and performer. Jay's range of international experience as a performer and educator, combined with his effusive personality and dynamic stage presence will make this a rare opportunity to both gain musical insights and to enjoy a day of learning. Jay performs with the innovative saxophone quartet Nexus and is the founder of the Saxophone Academy Sydney, which aims to introduce saxophonists of all levels to world class saxophone education. He teaches at the Sydney Conservatorium and was a guest professor at Caracas University, Venezuela, where he became an expert in South American Music.

Students can hear Jay perform a solo concert, play in a masterclass, listen to Jay's vision on the fundamentals of saxophone playing, and interact with their peers in an afternoon of saxophone orchestra rehearsal, finishing with a free concert.

For more information on Jay please visit <https://www.jaybyrnessax.com/>

We look forward to seeing you.
